Students with the following qualifications are eligible to apply for the YOUC program.

- A student who is currently enrolled in a university or an equivalent educational institution
- A student who intends to return to the home country after finishing the YOUC program and complete the course at the home institution

NOTE:

An applicant loses his/her eligibility to enroll in or attend the YOUC program when he or she loses a student status at the home institution.

For most of our students the insurance premium is around 1,400 - 1,500 yen per month (the insurance premium depends on the income levels earned in Japan). Daily Life in Otaru

1. Living costs

Estimated living costs per month for the students living in the international house are as follows:

International House	6,400 yen
Food Expenses	18,000 yen – 25,000 yen
Books	5,000 yen – 10,000 yen
Utility	8,000 yen – 15,000 yen
National Health Insurance (mandatory)	1,500 yen
Other expenses	10,000 yen – 20,000 yen
Total	48,900 yen – 77,900 yen

2. Transportation

There is a bus service from Otaru station to the university. To reach the university, take the route 19 bus from Otaru station and get off at the terminal. The university is only across the road from the bus stop. The fare is 220 yen and it is common for all bus routes in the city center. Frequency of the bus service is about once every thirty minutes for most of the day and every ten minutes in the morning. The discount bus card can be purchased from the bus driver or at the window of the station terminal.

It is also possible to walk from the station or the city center to the university, and it takes around twenty minutes. However, since the university is located at the top of the mountain, many students who commute from the outside of Otaru take a taxi to go to the university in the morning, and walk when they go home in the evening. Usually, students share a taxi from the station. Even if students cannot find their friends at the taxi stop, it is a tradition to share with other students who are also waiting. They only need to prepare small changes beforehand. The fare is between 700 and 800 yen.

3. City life

The city center is walking distance from Otaru station. The city center is a long strip area between the station and the canal. There is a shopping mall that goes from the west to the east, which leads to Hanazono area. To the north in direction of the canal and the sea, there is a shopping area frequented by tourists famous for glassware and music boxes.

For a bigger shopping or concerts, students probably want to go to Sapporo, the biggest city in Hokkaido. There are two alternatives to go to Sapporo station. One is to take JR (Japan Railway) train (one-way fare: 640 yen) or to take a highway bus. The rapid train services (normally two services per hour) take you to Sapporo in thirty two minutes, and normal services take about fifty minutes. Trains are generally more punctual especially in the winter. Although the highway bus fare is slightly cheaper (one-way fare: 610 yen), it takes about one hour or more depending on the road condition. Highway bus discount cards are also available.

Q. How much cash should I bring with me?

A. Students usually need about 120,000 Japanese Yen in cash until the time that they are able to establish a Japanese bank account and receive money wires from their home countries. Please do not expect to rely on a credit card or debit card. Credit cards cannot be used to pay for University related fees and there are few establishments in Otaru that will accept an international credit card. All of the banks in Otaru are regional banks so international debit cards and credit cards cannot be used at local ATM machines.
